

Far Above Rubies

- Register early! Space is limited.
- Church groups should register together.
- Let us know at registration if handicap facilities are needed.
- We will receive one “freewill” love offering during the retreat.
- Nursing mothers or those with special needs children are welcome. However, no infants or children are allowed in sessions. A caregiver must attend who will care for the child during sessions. Caregivers will pay the same retreat fee and will receive lodging and meals, and may participate in activities as permitted by the parent.
- Let Mina or Nancy know if you would like to bring door prizes or provide a skit.
- Activities include canoeing, pontoon rides, horseback riding, hiking, hayrides, archery, riflery, nature walks, campfire with singing and smores, a craft workshop, shopping at Ed’s Music & Gift Table, and napping!
